WELCOME & OPENING SESSION: When Caring Becomes Chronic. Uncovering the Dangers Of Compassion Fatigue. Dr. Macie Smith, Diversified Training Consultants. Year 2020 has certainly shined a spotlight on the needs of our seniors & on those who support & care for them. Since when has there been a question about the essential services our long-term care professionals provide? The unwavering nature of direct support staff to step in, step up, & step out to do what's best & what's right has covered us all with a blanket of protection. With that level of caring & compassion comes risks. This presentation will highlight the signs & symptoms of compassion fatigue & will offer effective treatment strategies to address those signs & symptoms.
